

Curricular Links

Gaeilge

- <http://www.rewardinglearning.com/dreimire/> - interactive website with good Irish games, stories and activities and pronunciations
- <http://www.teachnet.ie/clane/2008/> - has songs/poems on different themes as well as IWB downloads, powerpoints, worksheets and kids games ideas for all class levels
- <http://www.focal.ie/> - Online Irish/English dictionary
- <https://cnag.ie/ga/> – Conradh na Gaeilge is an Irish speaking community forum who try to actively promote the language.
- <http://www.beo.ie/> - monthly Irish magazine published online.
- <http://www.foinse.ie/> – Online news, sports, education and other features for those fluent and those hoping to improve their “cúpla focal”
- <http://www.seomraranga.com/> – Irish resources site
- <http://www.ranganna.com/> - Online Irish courses at all levels
- <http://www.scoilnet.ie/> – Irish resource portal

English

- <http://www.readingrockets.org/article/82> - 103 Things to do before and after reading
- <http://www.storylineonline.net/>– Children’s books read aloud by famous actors
- <http://www.storybird.com/> – Make your own story book
- <http://www.spellingcity.com/> – Tools to help with spellings
- <http://www.letters-and-sounds.com/what-is-letters-and-sounds.html> - Improve your letters and phonics
- <http://www.fizzyfunnyfuzzy.com/index.php> - Great poetry for primary school children
- http://www.bogglesworldesl.com/cloze_activities.htm - Cloze Activities to build vocabulary
- <http://www.makebeliefscomix.com/Comix/> - Make your very own comic book with this comic maker

- <http://www.freeeslmaterials.com/comics.html> - Make your very own comic book with this comic maker
- <http://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/> - Tablet Friendly E-books online for free
- <http://www.bbc.co.uk/skillswise/english> – Literacy skills for adults
- <http://pbskids.org/games/> – Literacy Games for younger children
- <http://www.funbrain.com/> - Brain training games for children

Maths

- <http://www.mangahigh.com/en-gb/games> – Manga High Maths Games (Fun Maths)
- <https://www.khanacademy.org/> – Khan Academy Maths Games (Fun Maths)
- <http://www.noetic-learning.com/mathdrill/> - Create Maths worksheets on any topic
- <http://www.sums.co.uk/> – Maths games (Fun Maths)
- <http://www.mathsmaster.org/> - Excellent Maths videos explaining each topic
- <http://www.mathsisfun.com/> – Maths games covering each topic
- <http://www.mathszone.co.uk/> – Maths games covering each topic
- <http://ie.ixl.com/math/> - Maths link to the Irish curriculum from infants to secondary school
- http://www.aaastudy.com/g2_14ax1.htm#section3 – interactive maths games for all ages/class levels
- <http://www.superkids.com/aweb/tools/math/> – create your own maths worksheets for any maths strand e.g. fractions, multiplication, decimals, percentages, etc
- http://www.digitaldialects.com/math_games.htm – For younger classes, basic maths games for addition and subtraction.
- <http://www.transum.org/Software/Tablesmaster/> – How quick can you answer 20 times tables questions?

SESE (Geography/History/Science)

- <http://www.primaryscience.ie/> – Primary science in Ireland
- <http://www.nationalgeographic.com/> – National Geographic
- <http://www.askaboutireland.ie/> – History and environmental site for Ireland

- <http://www.exploratorium.edu/> – San Francisco Museum (Fun Science)
- <http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/interactive/> – BBC History resources
- <http://www.crickweb.co.uk/ks2science.html> – Interactive resources for most strands divided into younger and older age groups.
- <http://education.usace.army.mil/clubhouse/science.cfm> – List of quick experiments under various headings.
- <http://www.exploratorium.edu/snacks/snacksbysubject.html> – Lists of experiments under different strand headings.
- <http://pbskids.org/zoom/printables/activities/> – List of experiments under different headings.
- <http://www.kids-science-experiments.com/index.html> – Kids science experiments (Fun)
- <http://www.nationalarchives.ie/> – National Archives website.
- <http://www.nli.ie/digital-photographs.aspx> – National Library digital photographs of the past
- <http://www.irishtimes.com/archive/> – Irish Times paper archive in digital format going all the way back to 1859
- <http://www.kbears.com/ks1.html> – Website with everything from countries, animals, the sea and dinosaurs. Aimed at younger classes but good for older classes too. Interactive and well animated.
- <http://www.timeforkids.com/> – Covers most major countries and continents with fact sheets, quizzes and worksheets at all age levels.

Art/Music/Drama

- <http://www.kinderart.com/> – Great art ideas for kids
- <http://www.iamanartist.ie/> – Art ideas linked to the Irish curriculum
- <http://www.funart4kids.blogspot.com/> – Art projects
- <http://www.fingertipstv.com/> – Make and Do with videos
- <http://www.artsconnected.org/toolkit/> - Exploring the art elements
- <http://www.dltk-kids.com/> – Art printables

- <http://www.crayola.com/> – Crayola art ideas
- <http://www.artsonthemove.co.uk/> – Drama ideas for kids
- <http://www.outoftheark.co.uk/> – Plays and Music resources for Drama
- <http://www.artistshelpingchildren.org/> – Lots of art ideas, crafts, how to draw, colouring pages, etc
- <http://www.creatingmusic.com/> – Games, listen/learn about, play and create music (all ages)
- <http://www.teachnet.ie/ddonnelly/> – Learn about traditional Irish music.
- <http://www.sfskids.org/> – Learn all about the instruments of the orchestra. Listen to the sounds of the different instrument and create a tune.

Other

- <http://www.staysafe.ie/> – Stay Safe (Personal Safety Programme)
- <http://www.thinkandact.ie/> – Educate Together on Social Matters
- <http://www.webwise.ie/> – Internet Safety
- <http://www.welephant.co.uk/gamezonemenu.htm> – Fire safety for children